O. B. TURNER, Editor and Manager.

SUBSCRIPTION, $1.00 PER YEAR.

Entered as second class matter March

1905, at the postoffice at Statesboro,

Ga., under the Act of Congress, March

3, 1879.

Telephone No. 81

THURSDAY, MAY 14, 1914.

Screen Admits It.

Our friend, the Sylvan Telephone, takes us to task and charges that we have our history mixed on the question of whether Screven or

Chatham has "hogged the congressman." We may have been slightly off on dates, but we are glad our friend admits the accuracy of our main point, which was that only one native-born Savannahian, Hon-

Julian Hartridge, had ever served this district as congressman. The others hailed by birth and adoption

from other counties, and one-third of them came from Screven. Yet

Overstreet is running on the flimsy

issue of "country against the city,"

when Screven has furnished three times the number of congressmen

Chatham has. His attitude is not consistent, and the Telephone's correction does not correct.

We said in looking back "something like fifty years," We did not take time to give the exact number of years, months, days, hours and minutes. What we were stressing was the inconsistency of a man from Screven, which has furnished more congressmen than any other county in the district, claiming that he is entitled to office because Chatham has furnished "all the congressmen," when the record shows Screven has had three to Chatham's one. Can't get away from that, and it wips out the idea that Savannah has dominated the first district, and shows that the sons of other counties have gone to the front as their merit

warranted, regardless of whether they were from Screven or some other county. Overstreet should plant his campaign upon issues, if he has any, and stand upon his merit.

Most Children's Diseases Start With a Cold.

Restlessness, feverishness, an inflamed throat and spasmodic cough—

maybe whooping cough is starting in.

Give Foley's Kidney and Bladder Pills.

It cures the children so very much, and

Mrs. Shipps, Raynhamville, Mo., says:

"I got fine results from it and it is a great medicine for whooping cough."

"O" in Overstreet

Stands for "Office"

It strikes one as being ridiculous

for a Screven county Overstreet to say he is not in favor of long tenure

in office. They tell us that the letter "O" stands for "office" and Overstreet in Screven county.

J. W. Overstreet's declaration that he does not believe in long tenure

in office, merely means that he does not believe in it for any one except an Overstreet. His father, a mighty good man, has been ordinary in Screven county for something like sixteen years, and he is kept there by "Fet" and others because of his efficiency and experience.

Take "Fet's" case: Everbody

MRS. W. W. LAKE

Tells Others How to Get Strong

and Well.

Mrs. W. W. Lake of Aberdeen,

Miss, says: "The grippe had left me in a weak, run-down condition from which I suffered for some time. I tried different remedies but nothing seemed to do me any good until I took Vinol, from which I received great benefit. My cough is almost entirely gone and I am strong and well again, and I am glad to recommend Vinol to others who suffer as I did."

Mrs. Lake's recovery was due to the combined action of the medicinal elements extracted from cod-livers

—combined with the labor making and strength creating properties of tonic iron, which are contained in Vinol, and her cough disappeared as a natural result.

We guarantee that Vinol will do all we claim and will pay back your money if Vinol does not satisfy you.

The Fact Remains

No amount of misrepresentation by the peddlers of alum baking powders, no juggling with chemicals, or pretended analysis, or cooked-up certificates, or falsehoods of any kind, can change the fact that

Royal Baking Powder has been found by the official examinations to be of the highest leavening efficiency, free from alum, and of absolute purity and wholesomeness.

Royal Baking Powder is indispensable for making finest and most economical food.

who has kept up with public events knows that "Fet" Overstreet has either held office or been a candidate for office practically ever since he was 21 years of age, and yet he hasn't enough. The laughable thing of it is that he declares he does not believe in long tenure in office. Why, Edwards has never held anything like the number of offices Fet has held. The truth of the matter is, Edwards has never been a candidate for or held but one office, and, as service goes in Congress, he has not been there very long. When "Fet" was campaigning a few years back for the late Col. Lester, it was one of the "experience" counts that "experience" counts. He used the same thing against E. K. Overstreet when he was trying with all the vengeance of his soul to defeat his distinguished cousin. "Fet" is adept at trying to make things fit his case and advance his interest. But he is not the man to condemn long tenure in office; he has been too much of an office seeker for that.

Standard of Efficiency Among Country Teachers

It is very sad, but true, that with all the time given to educational problems, the country school and teacher have been lost sight of until recently, and then only in certain sections have any definite steps been taken in this direction. It is a recognized fact that the majority of our greatest men have come from the country districts, and yet it was not deemed necessary in the past to provide the same advantages for the country child that the city child enjoyed. However, our educators are beginning to realize that, if this state of affairs continues to exist, the future of our country is threatened. They are awakening to the fact that specific attention must be given the country school or we will not progress educationally as a country like ours should.

Now, where is the first and most vital point of attack? The teacher, I am sure, every one would answer; but not the teacher the country has been, or has had to be, content with in the past—the teacher who is capable of rousing a dormant and neglected class of people to the great possibilities that spread out before them, and which belong to them if they only have the courage to reach out and grasp. Do you ask if it is possible to have this class of teachers devote their time and energies to the country school while greater possibilities are calling them to other fields? I answer that it is. We lack training, the training that should be ours by right. The teachers in various departments of the work have provided for them normal courses, while we, who most need it, have been left entirely to our own resources. We, who have not only the management of the school, but the burden of the whole community upon our shoulders, can our blunders be wondered at when most of us attempt this work without experience, as well as special training, for by the time sufficient experience is gained a better work is sought, and the people left to the mercy of the next "experience" seeker.

We can have this special training, for it is being given successfully in Indiana, Illinois, Michigan, and a few others. So, why not in ours. We may have it through the state-aided high school, the county normal school, or training class, and the state normal school. When this has been put in our reach, there will not be so great a cry for efficient country teachers, but rather surprise at the marked results that come from our efforts.

As important as this special training would be, this alone could not accomplish all that is to be expected from the work of the teachers. A most important factor is a genuine love for the country and its people, without which it would be impossible to instill into the pupils this love and thus stimulate a desire for the betterment of conditions. We must sift our number until these only are left, if we would check what is proving to be the curse of our country—the drift to the town and city. If we would hold people in the country, we must make country life as satisfying as town. Country teachers must instruct children and adults in terms of country life, and thus build up the community and make it as desirable as town.

Too, the school should not only be a center for intellectual improvement, but of social betterment as well, and this can be easily done if the teachers will manage affairs tactfully. Clubs may be organized in which the old and young of the neighborhood will delight in aiding, and thus co-operation will be gained in a way that might not be possible otherwise. The bringing together of the people socially and discussion of current happenings will result in a desire for enlightenment which will start a forward movement on the part of the community for which the teacher is directly responsible.

Another gate open to us is the raising of salaries to the point that trained and experienced teachers can afford to remain in the work. Local taxation is the latch to this gate, and we must tactfully kill the prejudice to this tax by proving to our people that it is not the mountain they think they are trying to be forced to climb, but rather the path of freedom to their children. To be of real benefit to a people, the teacher must live among them long enough to learn their needs and be able to minister to them, and local taxation insures funds sufficient for this purpose; so, let us work for this with all the vim and eagerness of earnest teachers who wish to see great things result from good honest effort.

Last, but not by any means least, we must try to dignify country teaching, as it will gain a recognized place in the teaching profession, and thus draw the best material in this field of labor. Let us take advantage of every opportunity that will help us to become better trained and gain wider experience, and, after this has been attained, remain in the work and thus dignify it. The path may not be as easy as another, nor the glory as widespread, but the satisfaction that comes from duty well performed will be a much greater reward.

MISS JESSIE MIKELL.

Getting Statistics on Wealth, Debt, Taxation

Mr. Clem Slater, representing the national census department, arrived in the city Tuesday for the purpose of securing statistics in Bulloch as to wealth, debt and taxation. The census bureau is compiling data of this kind all over the United States, and Mr. Slater is handling the work in this section. He will be in the city about two weeks before he completes his work.

Mr. Slater is a son of W. F. Slater, of Bryan county, and has already had considerable experience in public affairs. For some time he was connected with the census bureau in Washington.

J. H. Gray Dead. Mr. J. H. Gray, after an illness of about two months, died Tuesday at the home of his son, near Clito. Mr. Gray has been a citizen of Bulloch county for a long time, but left about three years ago and went to Hazlehurst. Recently his health has been failing, and two months ago he returned to Bulloch county, and has been making his home with his son, where he died Tuesday.

Inspecting for City Delivery. Special Representative Chances, of the postoffice department, arrived in Statesboro yesterday afternoon for the purpose of investigating the situation here with reference to the establishment of city mail delivery. This is his entire business here, and he will make a canvass of the city today in company with Postmaster Anderson.

In view of the fact that the streets have recently been named and the houses numbered in preparation for this work, and that the postal receipts are approximately the amount required for city mail delivery, it is believed that the delivery will shortly be established. Congressman Edwards is very much interested in the matter, and will keep behind the movement until results are secured.

For Sale. Having moved away and yet being able to look after my property in Statesboro, I offer for sale at a bargain three vacant lots in that city, each very desirably located for residential and other purposes. Also one lot in East Side cemetery. For prices and terms communicate directly with me. M. L. Tinley, Box 78, Waynesboro, Ga.

Ingalls' Family Heard From. Some little interest attached to the recent death of Mr. J. O. Ingalls at this place from the fact that, though he had lived in Bulloch county for several years, nothing was known of his family connection, none known from whence he had come to Bulloch. A letter received by Judge Cone the first of the week from Mrs. Amelia Kennedy, at Scranton, Pa., states that that was his former home and that he is survived by several near relatives in that city, including a sister with a number of married children.

Mr. Ingalls died leaving quite a little personal property, though not so much as has been generally supposed. A life insurance policy for $4,000 had been allowed to lapse, though it is stated that there may be some value attached to it still.

Judge Cone replied to Mrs. Kennedy giving the required information.

At it may have been that he felt that he was greatly over-paid, because of that "back salary" of approximately $1,500, which he accepted and for which no service was rendered. It covered and was for a period of time when he was not in congress and for which he rendered no service. Covering the same period he accepted from the salary payers of Screven county the salary as judge of the county or city court. It was well enough and proper that he should have taken the salary for the time he was in congress but the acceptance of that "back salary" for several months prior to his election cannot be satisfactorily explained. There was a "back salary" accumulation when Senator Smith succeeded the late Senator Terrell. He did not collect or accept it. The same was true when Judge Park succeeded the late Congressman Roddenberry, and he did not accept it. This was not the case with the "reform" candidate who is running on the "watch-dog-of-the-treasury" platform. He accepted and still has approximately $1,500 of the funds, raised by taxation for a period prior to his election and for which he rendered no service. How can he justify or explain it? "Uncle Jerry" is not running for congress. I'll have no quarrel or controversy with him. I have only the highest respect for elderly and feeble people, but "Uncle Jerry" has been as badly misled as to my services to the "laboring people" as he has been about the "salary raise." Let's see what the Union Herald says as to my record for "laboring people": "Return Edwards to Congress." "We are printing Hon. Charles G. Edwards' announcement elsewhere in this issue, and are more than delighted to do so from every viewpoint. He has the punch; in other words, he delivers the goods. He is a true and tried friend of organized labor as well as

EDWARDS' RECORD ON LABOR MATTERS

Did Not Vote to Increase Salary. Exposes Overstreet's Back Salary Grab

EDITOR BULLOCH TIMES. Dear Mr. Editor:

In the last issue of the Statesboro News there appeared an article written by Mr. Jere Howard which I deem it wise to answer. I have sent copy of this answer to the News and am also asking that you kindly give space to it, for it will be my policy to "bail down" the "campaign yarns" as fast as I can learn of them and where possible to expose the originators. In the article referred to it is stated, with reference to me:

"but presume that if he stays in Congress another term he will vote again for another raise of salary, but not for the laboring man."

The statement or inference that I ever voted for an increase in my salary is untrue. I am sure Uncle Jerry will be generous enough to correct this when he knows the truth. He, like many other good men, has been misled by the many glaring campaign misrepresentations that are being made by the "slate fixers" who are after my scalp, hair or no hair, and they are going after it without regard to facts. The increase in salary was made in the last session of the 55th congress. I did not begin serving until the 60th congress. So you see this is one "campaign lie" that almost convinced even Uncle Jerry. My opponent was in congress when the salary was increased. In justice to him I should add that I think he voted against the increase, which was a consistent vote on his part as he seemed to realize, what the people of Screven county later verified at the polls, that he was not worth the salary to the people.

I wish to say that I am now with the M. K. Jones Furniture Co., 422 to 328 West Broughton street, Savannah, where I will be glad to serve my friends from Bulloch and adjoining counties when in the city.

COUNTY TAX EQUALIZERS

GIVE ADDITIONAL TIME ARE WELL ADVANCED WITH THEIR WORK OF EQUALIZATION.

As will be seen from a formal notice in another column, the board of tax equalizers of the county have decided to give still further opportunity for making tax returns to those who have overlooked the matter. They have extended the time till Monday and Tuesday, when the books will positively close. This action is deemed just on account of the fact that, under the present law, the books are required to close on the first of May, whereas, in former years they have remained open till July 1st. Many taxpayers are still in ignorance of the change, and it is to save them expense of double tax that the additional time has been granted by the equalizers.

The board of equalizers are pushing their work as rapidly as possible under the circumstances. Though the work is new to them, they have taken it up in a systematic way, beginning with the 120th district, and have almost completed the district.

Contrary to the general impression that the object of the board is to raise taxes, the work has not been confined to that feature by any means. Many persons' taxes have been reduced. The equalizers, finding two neighbors with property of equal value, giving in their lands at widely different rates, are forced under the law to equalize these, and can only do so by bringing down one or raising the other. Sometimes it is necessary to do both these. Where lands adjoining are returned one at $20 per acre and the other at $6, there is apparent injustice to some taxpayer, and the board finds it necessary to set the matter right.

Persons whose returns are either raised or lowered will be given notice and will have opportunity to be heard before the receiver finally makes up his book to be forwarded to the state comptroller.
